MAXIMIZING SCC'S IMPACT LOCALLY, REGIONALLY, GLOBALLY

Hey Friend,

Twenty years ago, Julie and I left a thriving church in Southern California and returned home to Northwest Colorado, answering the call to lead a small church of 60 people in Steamboat Springs with a big vision - to reach our community with the good news of Jesus.

From day one, our vision as a church was to reach the unchurched - to be a place where anyone could come and investigate faith. And over the years, we have been incredibly humbled and honored to see thousands of people come through SCC's doors, searching for answers and finding Jesus.

But we're not done! That's why we're launching Oh the Places, a generosity initiative to maximize our personal and collective impact in Steamboat Springs, Northwest Colorado and around the world.

Thank you for coming along with us on the journey! Our mountain is waiting...

— Pastor Troy

2012: SCC began to expand its facility in order to reach more families, kids, and students.

INTRODUCING

Oh the Places is a generosity initiative designed to maximize our impact locally, nationally, and globally.

Our plan for advancement

When you give to Steamboat Christian Center, we can do so much together in the following areas...

TRANSFORMATION

CONTINUING OUR LOCAL IMPACT:

Funding our church to continue to be a church for the unchurched, creating irresistible environments for adults, children, and students.

EXPANSION

EXPANDING OUR REGIONAL IMPACT:

Funding the expansion of our vision regionally through investing in marriages, campus planting, and facility improvements.

COMPASSION

EXTENDING OUR GLOBAL IMPACT:

Investing in compassion initiatives in key areas of the world to affect and change a generation.

FOR the World

We can't change the entire world, but we can make a world of difference in these key countries...

Honduras

Bringing clean water to the entire country, providing relief for children, families and churches

Cuba

Reaching kids and families, providing medical aid and purchasing solar panels

Ukraine

Relieving suffering and providing relief in war-torn Ukraine

Malawi

Expanding the Village of Hope to help more women find their way out of trafficking and prostitution

Zambia/Pakistan

Sharing the gospel with hundreds of thousands of people, planting churches

How we'll get there...
